

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

TEXAS CHILD WELFARE FUNDERS

Updated 10/13/2020

PURPOSE

Texas Child Welfare Funders exists to optimize the child welfare system from initial report to permanency, ensuring the best outcome for the child.

PLATFORMS

Connection to sector thought and research leaders through:

- Webinars
- Podcasts
- Virtual meetings
- In-person meetings (when feasible) Child Welfare Funders' Symposium

MEMBER BENEFITS

- A network of peers with common purpose, working toward collective goals
- Access to child welfare resources and grantmaking best practices
- Quarterly educational opportunities with topic experts
- State legislative updates
- Policy and reform updates
- Leadership opportunities through steering committee or sub-committee participation

PRICE

As a member of Texas Child Welfare Funders you and your organization will be engaged and informed. For the first year, members will not be required to pay dues. As we grow, we will reassess the need for dues to cover administrative costs on an annual basis.

You can contribute via Philanthropy Southwest (www.philanthropysouthwest.org).

PHILANTHROPISTS (A running list of current members)

The Hoglund Foundation • Houston Endowment • Carl B. & Florence E. King Foundation
Kronkosky Charitable Foundation • Meadows Foundation • Morris Foundation
North Texas Community Foundation • The Rees-Jones Foundation • Philanthropy Southwest